

Covington ISD's After School Program
(7/28/2020)

As long as we are under the executive order for COVID-19, we will not have the after school program. However, we will still provide the evening meal as a take home meal. Students may pick up their take home meal as they leave campus for the evening.